

One of the features of the Lions Club outing at the Y. M. C. A. boys' camp on the Rhodes river a week ago yesterday was a nail-driving contest—and many were the mashed fingers. This photo shows the drivers at work.

Photo by Flaw

Not a school of porpoises, but a school of boy swimmers in the Chicago river. It was the annual water marathon of Chicago lads, won by Richard Howell, eighteen years old. Fifty-one boys took part in the event.

P. & A. Photos

Six members of the United States team entered in the international games in Paris beginning August 20. Photo snapped during practice at Weequahic Park, N. J. The girl contestants are claimed to be the best athletes of their sex in America.

Underwood & Underwood

Miss Janet Chase, prominent in Chicago society, takes her horse over the hurdles at Lake Forest, Ill., horse show. This annual show is one of the most popular in the middle west.

P. & A. Photos

Conference of military and state authorities, police and deputies near Morganza, Pa. in the heart of the coal mining section. Several hundred members of the Pennsylvania State Guard are located at this point.

©P. & A. Photos

Richard H. Cook, eighty-two years old, rides a bicycle while on the job as policeman at the Department of Agriculture. He has held his position for the past fifty-nine years, under eight Secretaries of Agriculture.

National Photo

Hudson Maxim, who has invented many high explosives, tries out a new "gun"—a gun which shoots many shots a second, but with no real harmful result. Photo taken at anglers' tournament and water carnival, Lake Hopatcong, N. J.

©Underwood & Underwood

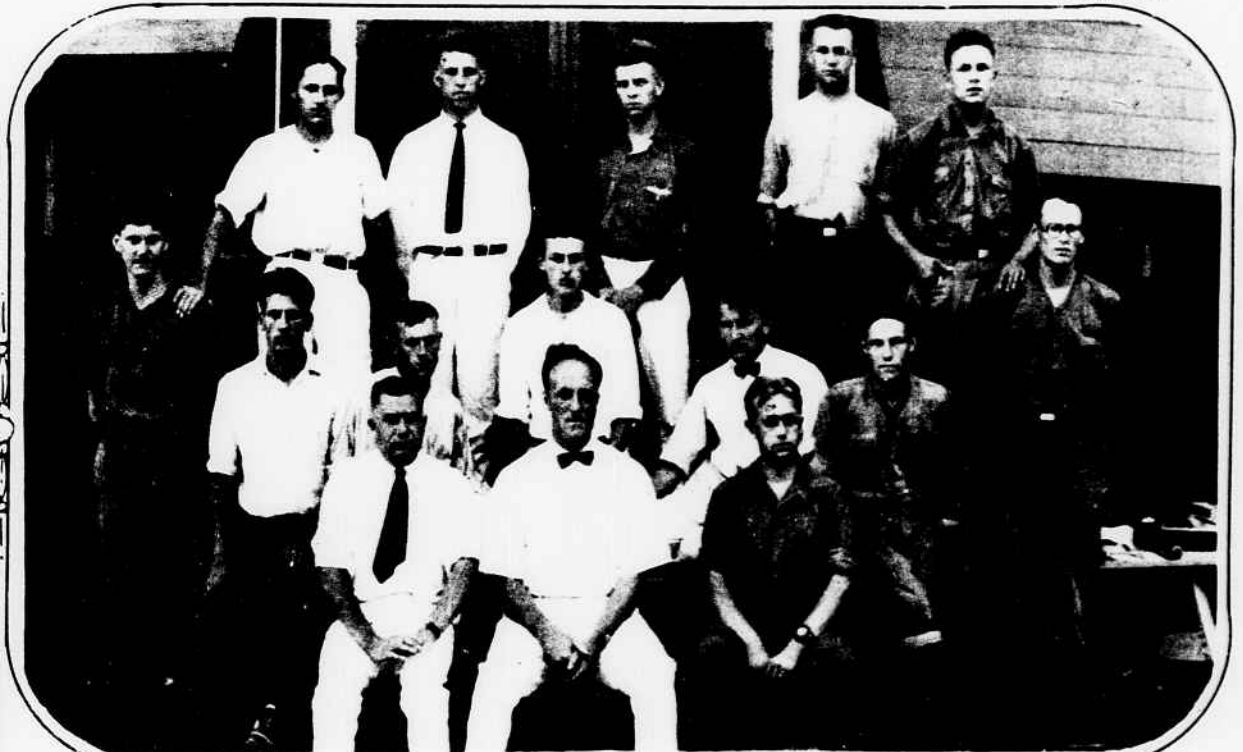

Edward Carter Holland, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Holland, prize winner in the healthy baby contest at Cherrydale, Va.

Photo by C. R. Wood

Miss Louise Peckham, one of the participants in the recent pageant at Cherrydale, Va.

Photo by C. R. Wood

Officers in charge of Camp Letts, the Y. M. C. A. camp on Rhodes river. Lower row, left to right: Dr. C. A. Schultz, camp physician; Earl B. Fuller, director of boys' work; Chester Weaver, assistant director. Middle row: William Horack, Yost Harbaugh, Ralph Davis, Lewis J. Campbell, A. V. Adams, John Patterson and William J. Reece. Top row: Lewis J. Joynes, E. P. Hardell, Nelson Blake, Leigh Barbour and Emory Shanks

Photo by Tenshert & Flack